

THE TIMES.

AN ALL HOME-MADE PAPER.

THURSDAY, — Jan. 19, 1911.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. Martin announces the birth of son to Mr. and Mrs. Houston Watts in this city Thursday, January, 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McGuire have gone to housekeeping in the Richardson property adjoining the Times office.

$5.00 Silk Petticoats during December for $3.50 at Mrs. Williams'.

The examination for graduates of common schools will be held at Stanton next Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27 and 28.

Our roads are all mud and travel is greatly reduced on this account. The trade in town must suffer for this cause.

The fourth installment of public school money was due Saturday, but we learn the money didn't arrive on time.

Your last winter underwear may not be heavy enough. See us before buying. Mrs. J. W. Williams.

We call attention to Shimfessel's new ad this week. He is bidding for your trade and certainly has some inducements for it.

There seems to be a great scarcity of mules in all parts of the State and the prices for the long eared animals promises to be high this spring.

We are patiently waiting for the ground hog February 2nd to give us a better grade of weather all the other forecasters are giving us too bad a brand.

What Can We Say

More than if you are not satisfied after using Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve we will refund your money. 25c. at all dealers.

The ground is covered with snow again. It fell Tuesday, though the weather is not so cold as the spell before, but not so warm as the last of last week.

You should see our line of trunks suit cases, telescopes and traveling bags before buying.

Mrs. J. W. Williams.

The mild weather last week brought a smile to the face of our farmer's wives when biddie began to cackle, but their fondest expectations were blighted when the present cold spell set in Tuesday morning.

He Never Got His Money

back. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve cured his eyes and he did not want it. Painless and harmless. 25c. at all dealers.

A call for $400,000 for State-bearing interest warrants was published Monday by Capt. Edward Farley, State Treasurer. The call is for warrants issued from April 5 to April 20, inclusive. These warrants will be paid as presented.

Old Soldier Tortured.

"For years I suffered unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They're simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at Swann-Day Lumber Co's. store.

A bible reading class has been organized in this city and will meet once each week at different homes of its members.

A Medicine

That lives ten years must have merit. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey has been sold for sixteen years, and sales have increased every year. So you run no risk. We guarantee it. At all dealers.

Negroes Lynched at Shelbyville.

There negroes were taken from the Shelby county jail at Shelbyville by a mob of fifty men and lynched. The victims were Gene Marshall, who was under death sentence for murder; Wade Patterson, charged with attacking two white women, and Jim West, charged with attempting liberties with a white girl. The body of West has not been found. Beofre taking the jail the mob turned off the electric lights and cut the telephone wires.

Death in Roaring Fire

may not result from the work of firebugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the quickest, snrest cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at Swann-Day Lumber Co.'s store.

Our Millinery department is teeming with all the pretty creations of the season.

Mrs. J. W. Williams.

The Two Great Classes.

At a recent dinner one of the speakers truly said: "The trust buster and the Socialist may do what they please," he said, "but mankind will still be divided into two great classes—those who walk to get an appetite for their dinner, and those who walk to get a dinner for their appetites." —Winchester Democrat.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at Swann-Day Lumber Co.'s store.

DE KALB FENCE CO.,
DeKalb, Ill. Kansas City, Mo.

Keep up the good roads fight all along the line until the people awake to a sense of the fact that Kentucky has as many good things as any place on earth, and all that is needed are roads over which one may travel to find these good things. It is a shame that the state has so many bad roads that one cannot get to the crossroads store with more of his product than he may carry on his back.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

Is a house-hold word in every state in the union as well as in several foreign countries. For Grippe, Coughs, Colds, Asthma and throat troubles it is the best. Sold everywhere. Look for the Bell on the Bottle.

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It Makes Weak Women Strong,
Sick Women Well.

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so abhorrent to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps.
